HONGKONG, DECEMBER 2018. 1889.

THE unofficial members of the Legislative Council are naturally anxious that the special rate to be levied for the construction | men were wounded. of the Gap Rock Lighthouse should not be allowed to become a permanent charge on shipping frequenting the port. They might infringing the Regulations made for convenience even go farther and contend that no rate for of the racing crews. In all probability several the purpose abould be levied at all. When the Hangkong Lighthouses Ordinance was introduced the pre-mble read :-- "Whereas or beacons in the harbours of the Colony proved by His Excellency the Governor, will be oband the approaches thereto," etc. When of the Victoria Recreation Club Regatta." the Bill was in Committee, however, the then Chief Justice (Sir JOHN SMALE) suggested that the word "approaches" should be omitted, as we could have no jurisdiction with the competing orews.

3.—The Western Boundary of the Course will be a believe to be a ledger. Stand off the Kowloop cordingly. The Colony is now, however, Godowns to the gunbosts meering-buoys off the Royal prosperous of Naval Establishment at Kowloon, and continued on sustenance. about to erest, pay for, and maintain a lighthouse outside the jurisdiction, and if the word "approaches" had not been struck (N.B.—This regulation does not apply to the launch of the Umpire or other Official of the Club.) out on that occasion the Bill introduced on Wednesday last would have been unnecessary. The Lighthouses Ordinance was subsequently incorporated in the Merchant Shipping Consolidation Ordinance. and the Bill now before the Council to smend the latter is for the purpose of authorising the levy of a rate for a lighthouse outside the Colony, the existing law only authorising light dues for lightbonses in the Colony. Experience has shown that it will not be safe to rely on a distinct understanding unsupported by express legal provision. The Hon. P. RYRIE expressed the hope on Wednesday that " what Mr. MACEWEN had stated and what His Excellency had agreed to would be noted down." But this is not sufficient, because things "noted down" are very often never looked at again, and when they are their binding effect is sometimes disputed. It will therefore be prudent to live it expressly provided in the Ordinance that the levy is to cease so soon as a certain sum shall have been collected. Notwithstanding the very distinct understanding that existed at the time the Lighthouses Ordinance was passed, when it was suggested, after the cost of the lighthouses had been much more than paid for, that there should be a reduction of the dues, the Secretary of State replied that he could not esnetion, any diminution of the sourcea of revenue. From this we may see how important it is that the powers of taxation it is proposed to give to the Governor in the present case should be limited and not genleral. The matter is one that specially comes within the province of the Chamber of Commerce, and we would suggest to that body the desirability of taking legal advice on the was larger than in any previous year. FIRST DAY, 19th December. So far as the opening day is concerned the Regatta of 1889 is worthy to rank with its predecessors. The weather was fine, the sport good. the attendance large, and the various events in nearly every instance well contested. The Hongkong Marina Company's vessel, Marina was kindly placed at the disposal of the Regatta Committee and made an excellent flagship. while the number of private launches present Hongkong Hotel Company were the caterers served tiffin and refreshments on board the ed, well contested and full of interest, but in more than one case expectations were entirely upset in the result. In no race was this more marked than in the first one; the " Parsee Cap." where the favourite, the "Lily." was nowhere, of course, have to be included in the calcula- | the "Kathleen" making an easy win. The "Hong Pairs" was likewise a surprise to many, the "Bank" boat making an easier win than was at first expected. The "Ladies' Purse," one

Among the number of launches which so crowded it is almost impossible, though desirable, to name any individual offender, much as we should desire as it was bearing the Chinese fing, was such a palpable offender that we think the notice of the Police should be drawn towards her. In one case at least she spoilt the finish completely. Such a violation of courtesy and fair play deserves every reprobation and we regret that we are unable to give the name of the launch. Bad as this case was there were several others, of whom unfortunately we are also unable to learn the names, who ran her very close in this way. One more remark we should like to make with regard to the Regatts, and that is that the subscriptions do not flow in as freely as in years before. It must be remembered that the Re. gatta is almost entirely dependent on outside support and unless this is given freely, it must collapse. Hongkong has not too many holidays, and it would be a pity, if after thirty-four years of life, our Annual Regatta, in an increasing and.

The entries for this race were not so numerous as to cause much excitement about town. and we fancy there would not have been much adverse comment had Mr. Chater, under the circumatances, transferred his valuable prize to some other race with a larger field of competitors. Of course such a step would be rough on the two owners who toed the mark, but when we look back on our past yachting records here, it does seem better that we should "lay to a bit and see if omitting the item from the programme for a time would tempt yachting enthueisets to build, purchase, and sail. The Kathleen was not entered this year, in fact the extensive alterations which have been decided upon by her new owner are already commenced, Yacht racing under certain and more often under uncertain oircumstances -- has a little touch of danger about it, and with a scarcity of lifebelts in the Colony Mr. Ede decided that, so far he was concerned, "it was not a good risk. The entries therefore were reduced to:

The Colleen Bawn has very little more chance of ever besting the Arrow on her time allowance than she would have of beating the Ariel, and if there was ever any doubt about it, there should be none now, for vectorday the Arrow had points in band at every kind of sailing.

The two little clippers were sent away at lir. 27 mins. 58 sees, and the Arrow never had the least occasion to fear her opponent. Had the latter been formidable or even the slightest bit dangerous, she would have punished the Arrow severely for her steering to the mark off Cow-e-chow; she made a course which must have meant a loss of 5 minutes to her, but as it was, they shot the mark as under:-

The good breeze which the boats met before turning the flag was as uncomfortable to the Colleen Hawn as it was grateful to the Arrow; the latter "took it on "and smiled, whilst the half-ton smaller boat funked it, and lowered her pocket handkerchief which did duty as a iib-header. Granted that it is unwise to overload a racing yacht with canvas, it is on the other hand well to know when it is necessary to take in. The re-setting of this topsail when the wind full soon aft rwards was so much time lost; it should have been carried throughout. As the Arrow neared Chung Hue it was noticed that then gained on the Lily and led by about two off to one of the best starts of the day. The the flag boat had either drifted or had been lengths, but the stroke was a short choppy one Rose looked very promising at the coupling placed in a position much farther East than and the Lily shortly afterwards began to gain mencement and took the lead, closely followed usual, and just as the yacht had shaped a course on her. The Mand tried to spurt, but their by the Thistle and the Shamrock, the to weather it, the mark was towed by a steam quick stroke here told on them and though work- latter going in splendid style to Davidson's launch to its proper moorings—close to the quick stroke nere told on them and though works include going in spicial style with the Victoria coming hard the Lily gradually crept ahead. The steady swinging stroke, with the Victoria coming in the rear, and the Leek so far behind as this is unwarrantable. We point to look out of it. The Victoria then went ahead as similar occurrence last year, and we are making much headway, now began to come to the front and gradually overhauled the Mand. considerably and was for a tew yards on even think strong objection should be taken to such The Lily, going in fine style, won fairly easily by terms with the Shamrock, Thistle and Rose, a proceeding as moving stake boats during the a length and a half, the Eileen just managing Then the Thistle and Rose showed the others race, especially when, as was the case to-day, a the way, the Shamrock, hanging on to their vacht is almost on the top of it. Fortunately sterns like girm death, without, however, the Arrow was well to windward and quickening the stroke. The Thistle soon left the mark (in tow of the anuch!) on her passed the Rose and shortly afterwards the starboard hand. Had it not been so, could the Shamrock did ditto and it became apparent umpire have compelled her to go about, and that the race was between the Shamrock and round the mark when subsequently moored? the Thistle. When the Shamrook came on We hear the College Bawn, which carried even terms with the Thistle, betting was very powerful legal crew, have even now lodged a strong on the Shamrock, and 10 to 1 failed in protest, but considering that at Chang Have protest, but considering that at Chung Hue their times were taken :-

> Colleen Bawn 3 8 30 we think it will scarcely be upheld. The Arrow increased her lead on the home run, and presed the flag ship about three minutes shead son or other the gun did not fire until that time had passed. The College Bawn put in an appearance later on with an English ensign hong half-mast, but as their racing flag was not lowered in sympathy, we conclude the half mast flag only referred to the protest mentioned earlier. Times at the flagship were:

CORRESPONDENCE. We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our Correspondents. THE PUNJOM MINING COMPANY AND THE SAN FRANCISCO SYNDICATE. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS." SIE,-Since several of the operators and bears

in Hongkong have thrown discredit upon the intentions of certain mining men at San Francisco to open negutiations for the purchase of the ensold mining lands belonging to the Punjom Mining Company I now consider it my duty to openly assert that the rumours current are quite at variance with actual facts. My report on the Punjom property is in the hands of my outployers and they fully realize the position of the Punjom Company and the value of its mining lands. The telegram received here a few days ago merely saked for an offer from the Punjoin Company, as the intending purchasers whated to ascertain first what value the Punjoin Company placed upon their unsold property. My valuation of course would be the besis upon which they would set. On Tuesday night I property of the Victoria Recreation Club or received a cable requiring me to furnish by wire boats similar in build to those belonging to what I considered a fair offer. I did so an hour Viotoria Recreation Club. No International after. Last night I was advised by cable that the Bank had refused to set, on what grounds I do not knew. These, Sir, are actual facts. My employers are men of undoubted standing sed reputs, and although at this moment matters seem rather cloudy I feel confident that if we do not take the whole properly we are determined against all opposition to purchase the let carefully prospected by me-in Sept. An extraordinary story of the rest act with an electric-lighting wire oc New York. Early in the morning a wire, worn by rust, broke and fell from ole on which it was stretched Avenue, and in falling dragged " lectric-lighting wire, which then law across the avenue. Thomas Wholen delivery wagon of the Herald, came avenue, and his horse-stepped upon wire. The animal stopped short, then so the air and fell motionless. The concust Whelen over the horse's head into As he arose, bewildered by the fall hurt, he steaded himself against the beast. A tramendous shock then thre his feet clean into the gutter. W sparks flying in all directions as he believing they were the creatures of his the effect of his fall, and failing entire prehend the situation, he picked himsel more and went up to the horse to see the matter. He felt for its head in the and got hold of the bridle. The shock flung him still further away. Whele last understood the significance of the light and did not try to get up again still and shouled for help. Two men near heard his cries and ran to see whe matter. In the darkness of the avenu electric lights were burning they saw track and the horse emitting flasher flame, and sparks were spurting here in unexpected places. The horse did and was evidently stone dead. A smell ing flesh was perceptible half a square s

The wondrous occurrences did not a however. The police strived and endea keep people from contact with the wire. them, a sergeant, while thus engaged, a wire with his head, and fell on to the a . if he had been shot. He lay there is but a policemen who had seen him fall the flash which the wire emitted as the sergeant's forehead. He dropped h and, seising the sergeant's foot, tried him away with all his might. The shoe he himself received sent him sprawling resolutely caught hold once more, and prostrate sergeant from his perilons His whole body, we are told, tingled and ed with the electric current as he m effort; but he succeeded, and the serg covered slowly. He was dezed and almo less, but insisted upon staying to give that the danger might be averted. It of the question for him to remain, however head was covered with blood. There plain imprint of the wire across the f and blood had flowed from a deep gash eye, received probably in the fall. He en to the station-house; but his cap, v one dared to pick up, lay on the track where the danger might be met, and horse was still burning slowly in the r Finally, it occurred to comeone to rue Electric Light Company's workshops came and at once outdown the wire : but lous to say, it still blazed and apattered gutter for half an hour. Electric wires have odd ways in America.
